Responsibilities

As a Private Equity & Operations Intern you support the work of the ADMETOS team on-site at one of our portfolio companies we advise to sustainably increase their value. You will assist in the restructuring and successful positioning as a member of the respective Operations Team. The Operations Team develops - together with the established C-level management and employees - a comprehensive restructuring concept and redesigns the corporate strategy. As a fully integrated team member during your internship you will be cooperating on the development of various improvement measures through the entire value chain of the business, implement them, drive them on and monitor them permanently and assist with the reporting to the management and the shareholders.

Your Profile

- Strong academic profile, preferably in business studies or natural sciences, at least 3rd semester bachelor's degree or master's degree student.
- First relevant internship experience in a related field such as Investment Banking, Strategy Consulting, Private Equity or Auditing.
- A genuine interest in Finance and Operations, paired with strong analytical skills and result-oriented thinking.
- Entrepreneurial mindset with a hands-on mentality as well as a high degree of responsibility and strong teamwork.
- Fluent written and verbal communication skills in English and German.
- Ability to join our team either through a full-time internship of at least 3 months or part-time working student for a prolonged timeframe.

We offer

- Firsthand insights into the value creation process in Private Equity.
- A highly motivated, young and interdisciplinary work environment in an excellent team, coupled with continuous mentoring and a potential long term perspective.
- Competitive internship remuneration.

If you find this interesting and versatile job appealing, we look forward to receiving your online application, including the earliest possible starting date!
